

EXHIBIT B

Community Programs

213.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines for developing community programs and to define the eligibility criteria for participants in Community Programs.

213.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the San Francisco Sheriff's Department to provide alternatives to incarceration for pre-sentenced and sentenced individuals based upon an individual risk assessment and consistent with public safety goals. The Department has the discretion to place any eligible incarcerated person in an alternative program.

213.3 PROGRAM GUIDELINES

Community programs are subject to the approval of the Administration Operations Division (AOD) Commander or the authorized designee.

- (a) Incarcerated persons released to an alternative program will be released pursuant to the Sheriff's Department authority, based on:
 - 1. 1203.016 PC (Home Detention)
 - 2. 1203.017 (Involuntary Home Detention)
 - 3. 1203.018 PC (Pre-sentenced Home Detention)
 - 4. 3081(b) PC (County Parole)
 - 5. 4024.2 PC (Sheriff's Work Alternative Program (SWAP))
- (b) Eligibility for Alternative Programs
 - 1. Pre-sentenced incarcerated persons may become eligible for Pretrial Electronic Monitoring (PTM) or other alternatives to incarceration by:
 - (a) Court order
 - (b) A condition of Own Recognizance (OR) or bail
 - (c) Per 1203.018 PC (must meet all eligibility criteria)
 - 2. Sentenced incarcerated persons (must meet all eligibility criteria)
 - (a) A 1170 (h)(5)(A) PC straight sentenced individual shall be reviewed for electronic monitoring when they have 9 months, 6 months and 3 months remaining on the sentence. For persons with a sentence of more than two years, the person shall be eligible to apply for an electronic monitoring review after 50% of the sentence has been served, and every three months thereafter.
 - (b) Will be considered Heightened Scrutiny.

San Francisco Sheriff's Department

Custody and Court Operations Policy Manual

Community Programs

- (c) An 1170 (h)(5)(B) PC split sentenced individual may be eligible to participate in community programs pending a review of the incarcerated person's risk assessment and treatment plan.
- 3. SWAP/PREP
 - (a) incarcerated persons must be able to complete SWAP obligations within one year.
 - (b) An incarcerated person must have served 50% of a sentence in custody before becoming eligible to participate in SWAP.
- (c) Electronic Monitoring/Home Detention (EM)
 - 1. There must be a minimum of 30 days remaining in the incarcerated person's sentence.
 - 2. An incarcerated person sentenced to more than one year will be reviewed for release to EM when they have 9 months, 6 months and 3 months remaining on the sentence.
 - 3. An incarcerated person sentenced to less than a year will be reviewed for release to EM when at least 50% of the sentence is completed.
 - (a) An incarcerated person not released to EM after the first review will have a second review when 70% of the sentence is completed.
- (d) Out of county SWAP/EM commitments may be served in San Francisco if the person lives in San Francisco.
 - 1. Out of County commitments are subject to the same constraints as in county commitments.
- (e) Ineligibility for Alternative Programs
 - 1. Persons who are ineligible for alternative programs, who meet at least one of the criteria below, requires a review and approval by sworn supervisor.
 - (a) A Stay Away/Restraining Order from persons and places including:
 - 1. A Stay Away order from a place or person
 - 2. A Temporary Restraining Order (TRO)/Civil Protective Order (CPO) from a named person
 - (b) A prior felony conviction within the past seven years requiring registration under the 290 Law. If approved would be under heightened scrutiny.
 - 1. The seven-year period is from this time the individual was released from incarceration.
 - (c) Inappropriate behavior in a custody setting, including:
 - 1. Physical altercations
 - 2. Documented conflict with department employees or contract service providers

San Francisco Sheriff's Department

Custody and Court Operations Policy Manual

Community Programs

3. Multiple Serious or Major Rule Violations
 4. Documented threats
 5. Administrative Separation status (excluding protective custody incarcerated persons) with an MR3/MR4 status.
2. Persons who are ineligible for alternative programs based on at least one of the criteria below and wish to appeal may do so by contacting the Unit Commander in writing.
 - (a) Ineligible offense per the Alternative Program Eligibility Chart
 1. Current charge and/or conviction in the past 5 years
 - (b) A current misdemeanor charge, or past conviction, that requires a 290 Registration.
 - (c) A 273.6 Domestic Violence restraining order or a violation of a CPO in the past 18 months pursuant to a conviction of 273.6.
 1. The 18 months shall be counted from 18 months of the current release from incarceration.
 - (d) Have an active hold with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR)
 3. Persons who are ineligible for alternative programs due to the criteria below, requires a review and approval by the Sheriff.
 - (a) A felony charge or past conviction, less than seven years, that requires a 290 Registration.
- (f) If the court rules that an individual is ineligible for an alternative program, the Sheriff's Department will give great deference to the court ruling.

213.4 TRANSPORTATION TO PROGRAMS

The Sheriff's Department will facilitate the transportation of incarcerated persons to programs as directed by issued court orders.

- (a) Prior to transporting a sentenced incarcerated person to a program, deputies must have:
 1. A Commitment specifying that the sentence may be served in a residential treatment program that the Department has on file.
 - (a) A Transportation Order, may be included in the Commitment, stating that the Sheriff will transport the incarcerated person to a specific residential treatment program.
 2. An acceptance letter from the program.

San Francisco Sheriff's Department

Custody and Court Operations Policy Manual

Community Programs

- (b) Prior to transporting a person serving time as part of a split sentence in a residential treatment program, the person must be evaluated for electronic monitoring.
 - 1. If the person does not meet the Alternative Sentence Eligibility requirements, the matter must be referred to a Community Programs Unit sworn supervisor. The supervisor shall refer a heightened scrutiny case to the Unit Commander.
- (c) incarcerated persons shall not be released to a program until cleared by the Central Records and Warrants Unit (CRW) (i.e. warrant and hold check).

Procedural link:

Custody and Court Operations Procedure Manual: 213.2 TRANSPORTATION TO PROGRAMS PROCEDURE

213.5 RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT PROGRAMS

- (a) Residential treatment programs are subject to site visits as would any other residential location for an electronic monitoring participant.
- (b) Residential treatment programs do not have the authority to waive the requirement for electronic monitoring.
- (c) A person serving a split sentence in a residential treatment program, who has an electronic monitoring device, shall have the device removed when the constructive portion of the sentence is complete.
- (d) Sentenced individuals who abscond from a residential treatment program are subject to arrest and shall not:
 - 1. Receive credit for time served for any time spent in the treatment program. Upon being notified that the person absconded, Community Programs deputies shall inform the CRW of that fact.
 - 2. Be transported to another residential treatment program, for one year from the date of the event.

213.6 ELECTRONIC MONITORING PRE-TRIAL DEFENDANT LOCATION REQUEST

The Sheriff will accept requests for electronic monitoring (EM) location information from a verified Department of Justice (DOJ) law enforcement agency. The San Francisco Sheriff's Office requires an Electronic Monitoring Location Request Form submitted by the requesting agency.

Electronic monitoring location requests are applicable for:

- Current Pre-Trial EM defendants
- Any criminal defendant with a current matter pending who was previously ordered to participate in EM or is on active warrant status for the current matter.

The Electronic Monitoring Location Request Form requires the approval of the Community Programs Watch Commander. A sworn employee shall complete and respond to requests from DOJ verified law enforcement agencies.
